

An Empty Chair

Catherine Faber

♩. = 110

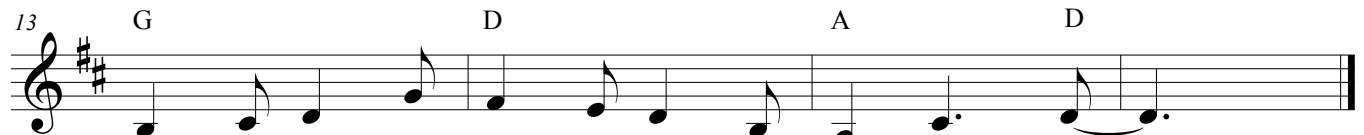

We're hur - ting for em - ploy - ment in this pro - mised land _____ And They rag on the re - ces - sion, try to fix the blame _____ You'll
You can learn a lot from peo - ple that you don't ig - nore, _____ Or dis -
Their thoughts on e - qual rights have al - ways made me flinch, _____ What they We gave this thing a chance, but now I have to say, _____ Per - in - come in - e - qual - i - ty is out of hand. _____

no - tice that they ne - ver men - tion Dub - ya's name. _____ They're miss with ug - ly ep - i - thets like "slut" and "whore." _____
say a - bout mi - nor - i - ties can kind of pinch. _____ As - haps it's time to give it up and walk a - way _____ It's Fun - ding for cam - paigns still needs re form but they're _____ look - ing out of touch to me, just stan - ding there, _____ Wo - men have a lot to say, but do they care? _____ sis - tance for the un - em - ployed con - sists of prayer, _____ And plain they are - n't lis - ten - ing; let's leave them there, _____

Mak - ing con - ver - sa - tion with an em - pty chair _____