

Enlightenment's Child

Catherine Faber

♩ = 150

Dm
F
C
Dm

The trea - sure a - like of the bold, and the risk a - verse,
 Our rea - son's im - per - fect, but fair, in its sto - rage; In
 All our our sen - ses are par - tly con - cep - tions, —
 Fan - ta - sy's fun to ob - serve and to re - ckon, To Fie - to the folks who may cry it as trea - son. En -

5
Am
C
F
Dm

Sci - ence tells won - ders ex - ceed - ed by none.
 lo - gi - cal thought old re - sponse - es en - mesh.
 Mo - dels con - scrut - ed by part of the brain. En - pounce on and stalk like a plume from a hat. But light - en - ment's child, I will try to be fair, But

9
Dm
F
C
Dm

I love the vast - ness of time and the U - ni - verse;
 Due to our spi - rit's odd man - ner of o - ri - gin, joy your i - ma - gi - nings, test your per - cep - tions, The gen - u - ine mys - ter - ies, kin - dle per and - be - ckon, As trust ob - ser - va - tion and lo - gic and rea - son; —

13
Am
Am
F
Dm

Fan - ta - sy's lov - ely, I play it for fun.
 Ri - sing in sta - ges from an - i - mal flesh.
 truth is a grai - we can hope to a - tain!
 se - cre - tive scra - bbl - ings sum - mon a cat.
 Facts on the ground trum - ping cas - tles in air.

2

Enlightenment's Child

17 F Gm Am Dm

17 Hu -

21 F Am7 Bb F

21 ma - ni - ty's spi - rit our times have seen hei - ghten meant

25 Gm F Dm C

25 Fair - ness, com - pass - ion and free - dom a - vowed.

29 F Am Gm F

29 I am a child of the Age of En - light - en - ment,

33 Bb Am C F

33 Cur - i - ous, pass-ion - ate, joy - ful and proud!

Enlightenment's Child

37 B \flat Am C F

37